Larry: We're off the air.

Kathy: So, how was your weekend, Max?

Max: My weekend was good. Do you remember the birthday pary for my son?

Kathy: Yes, I remember. It was last Friday.

Max: Well, my parents came for the party. They stayed with us for the weekend.

Kathy: What did you do on Saturday and Sunday?

Max: On Saturday, we went to a museum. On Sunday, we went on a picnic.

Kathy: It was such a beautiful day. Where do your parents live?

Max: They live in Portland, Oregon. I grew up in Portland, but I live in Washington, D.C. now. Kathy: Portland is a long way from here. Portland is on the West Coast and Washington is on the East Coast. How old are your parents?

Max: My father is 67 years old. My mother is 65 years old.

Kathy: What do they do?

Max: They're retired. My father is a retired businessman. My mother is a retired school teacher.

Kathy: Well, I hope they have a good time in Washington.

Max: I'm sure they will.

Kathy: Oh, hi Elizabeth. Have a good show.

Eliz: Thanks.
