Carl: I need directions.

Kent: Certainly.

Where do you need to go?

Carl: To the National Gallery of Art.

Kent: The National Gallery... let me see.

It's right next to the Natural History Museum.

Carl: The Natural History Museum?

Kent: Yes. That's where they have the dinosaur bones.

Carl: I'm afraid I don't know where that is.

Kent: Okay... well, it's across the street from the Air and Space Museum.

You know, where they have the Wright Brothers' airplane.

Carl: I don't know where that is, either.

Kent: Is this your first visit to Washington, D.C.?

Carl: Actually... I live here!

Kent: OK. Come with me. I'll show you where it is.

Larry: OK... and we're off the air.

Kathy: Say, Max, what time is it?

Max: Umm.... it's three thirty. Kathy: Oh, I've got to go!

Max: Where are you going?

Kathy: Don't you know?

Today is the opening day of the new movie, "Battle for the Stars."

Max: Oh, that's right.

I heard about it on the news last night.

Everyone wants to see it.

I'll bet there is a long line of people at the movie theater.

Kathy: Oh, yes. There's a very long line.

I'm meeting one of my friends there.
